AUTHORITY

A bank may establish one or more "full service branch" banks pursuant to the provisions of A.C.A. § 23-48-703 and Arkansas State Bank Department Rules and Regulations § 48-703.1.

The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, Section 613, now provides de novo branching for state-chartered banks into other states where the home state law did not previously allow. This federal legislation preempts any prohibition against de novo interstate branching provided by state law.

FICTITIOUS NAME

Pursuant to A.C.A. § 23-48-309 – Names of state banks and subsidiary trust companies; “No state bank or subsidiary trust company shall conduct any business in this state under a fictitious name unless it first files with the Commissioner a form supplied or approved by the Commissioner giving the following information:

- a) The fictitious name under which business is being or will be conducted by the applicant corporation;
- b) A brief statement of the character of business to be conducted under the fictitious name;
- c) The corporate name, state of incorporation, and location (giving city and street address) of the registered office in the state of the applicant corporation.”

If it is Applicant’s intention to use a fictitious name, a separate “Application for Fictitious Name” must be completed.

See Attachment – Application for Fictitious Name

Requirements of Host State: Applicant shall review and determine what requirements and/or notice is required by the potential host state prior to filing an expedited application for an out-of-state branch bank application with the Commissioner. Evidence of compliance with those potential host state requirements and/or notice shall accompany this application.

Appeal of Decision: Pursuant to A.C.A. § 23-48-703(h), within thirty (30) days after the Commissioner issues an order accepting or rejecting a full service branch application, an Applicant or a party that filed a protest to the full service branch application may appeal the Commissioner's order to the circuit court of the county where the full service branch will be established.
