

Candace A. Franks

Bank Commissioner

Candace A. Franks became Arkansas's 21st bank commissioner on June 13, 2007. She is the first female and the first professional bank regulator appointed to her position. Governor Asa Hutchinson reappointed her for a third four-year term on June 13, 2015, to continue her leadership role in his administration.

As bank commissioner, Ms. Franks oversees the Arkansas State Bank Department. The Bank Department is the chartering and regulatory authority for state banks that have a main office in Arkansas. As of June 30, 2017, the agency supervised 80 state-chartered commercial banks with total assets of $85.2 billion.

Commissioner Franks served as chairman of the board of the Conference of State Bank Supervisors (CSBS) from May 2014 to May 2015. She previously served as secretary, vice chairman and chairman elect – all in the capacity as a member of the CSBS Executive Committee. As chairman emeritus, she currently serves as an ex-officio member of the CSBS board. Commissioner Franks is a member of the CSBS Legislative Committee and is the former vice chairman of the CSBS Education Foundation.

From 1995 until her appointment as Commissioner, Ms. Franks served as deputy bank commissioner and general counsel for the Bank Department. Prior to that, since 1980, Ms. Franks served as general counsel to the Bank Department and represented the State Banking Board.

On March 17, 2017, Governor Hutchinson appointed Commissioner Franks to the Board of Trustees of the Arkansas Public Employees Retirement System. Her term runs through March 9, 2019.

In March 2010, Commissioner Franks was recognized by Arkansas Business as one of 20 “Women of Influence” – women considered to be among the most influential in their fields in Arkansas. Ms. Franks was selected by Arkansas Business in 1996, 1997 and 1998 as one of the “Top 100 Women in Arkansas.”

Ms. Franks received a Juris Doctor from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock School of Law in 1979. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in history and a Master of Arts degree in American history at Arkansas State University in Jonesboro.
