

Susannah Marshall was appointed to be the 22nd Commissioner of the Arkansas State Bank Department on October 1, 2020. In August 2023, Governor Sanders appointed Ms. Marshall to also serve as the 19th Arkansas Securities Commissioner.

Ms. Marshall has served the State of Arkansas since 1995. She began her Bank Department career as a Commercial Bank Examiner in 1995 and has served many roles within the agency. Ms. Marshall was appointed Deputy Bank Commissioner in 2007 and served in that role until her appointment to Bank Commissioner.

As Bank Commissioner, Ms. Marshall is responsible for the regulation, supervision and examination of Arkansas state-chartered banks, bank holding companies, a trust company and Arkansas Capital Corporation. As of March 31, 2025, the agency supervised 70 state-chartered commercial banks with total assets over $168 billion.

As Securities Commissioner, Ms. Marshall is responsible for oversight of the securities industry, non-depository mortgage lending industry, money services industry, state-chartered credit union industry, and state-chartered savings and loan industry in Arkansas. The Securities Commissioner manages agency operations to ensure the Department carries out its core mission of protecting the well-being of Arkansas citizens through effective investor education and the administration and enforcement of the various statutory Acts under its jurisdiction.

Commissioner Marshall is a trustee on the Board of Directors of the Arkansas Teachers Retirement System, a member of the State Board of Finance, and a member of the Arkansas Financial Education Commission.

In May 2025, Ms. Marshall was elected Treasurer to the Board of Directors for the Conference of State Bank Supervisors and serves on various committees within the organization.

Ms. Marshall also serves on the Board of Trustees of the SW Graduate School of Banking (SWGSB) at SMU Cox in Dallas, Texas and as a board member for Economics Arkansas.

Ms. Marshall earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Arkansas State University, Jonesboro, Arkansas in 1994 and is a 2002 graduate of the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking. During her tenure with the Bank Department, Ms. Marshall obtained the designations of Commissioned Senior Examiner and Certified Examination Manager.
